	Victorian Design Competition	607 fab	$5.00	Cartoon Kangaroo at Beach and Uluru	P971012	1398	Although this card had a distribution bar code on the bottom left of the reverse side, it was not available through the collector service. Additionally, it is unknown whether it was distributed throughout the country or was confined to a selected area. Therefore it is considered to be a "fab" card not readily available to members of the public.
	Timezone Games	608	$5.00	Red Car in Desert	A971112	1399 and 1428 to 1429	These were printed by Leigh Mardon and another printer. The main differences are discernable on the reverse side of the cards with only miniscule differences on their faces.

	Fishing	613	$5.00	Fishing at the Beach	N971212	1436	The limited Edition cards were printed by a printer other than Leigh Mardon. The differences can be distinguished on the rear of the cards. The exception being the $10 card which has the "$10" on the front appearing in a condensed font with a distinct colour difference overall. The $5 and $20 cards only have a slight colour variation. However, this does not significantly detract from the front of card designs being the same.

Cards in this series all had the general distribution barcode at the bottom left of the reverse side. However, they were not available from the Collector Service. It is also assumed that they were sold at face value within the catchment area of the teams involved. Hence they were not readily accessible to collectors throughout Australia. Therefore, they are catalogued as "fab" cards.
